

Okram Sayhoun

Speaker reconciles Arab conflict

By Randall Stanislav

Okram Sayhoun is an Arab, an Arab who wants to be understood.

"...The TV here has always shown one side of the whole problem. It is always the bloodthirsty Arab, always the Arab murderer, always the criminal..."

Displaced from his native Palestine before he was one year old, Okram perhaps feels the bitterness of the homeless more intensely.

"Why do we (the Arabs) always have to comply to their (Israel's) needs? If you feel sorry for them, why don't you give them Wisconsin or Iowa...give them one of your states, you have fifty of them. We only have one."

There is a tendency to forget that conflicts have at least two sides. Speaking last Tuesday night at the Student Union, Sayhoun offered the Arab viewpoint on the current Arab-Israeli conflict, views that are decidedly different from our usual perspectives.

"Israel now is comprised of terrorist gangs that have succeeded in the past twenty years to show a facade of honorableness and decency, while behind this facade there are more horrors than have been done by the Nazis in Germany."

When the question of the Olympic incident came up Sayhoun said, "At Munich everybody was shocked, but I was not, I wasn't even sad. I was just frustrated because this violence has occurred only recently, but I have lived with it for twenty-five years. I'm tired of hearing that it's all right to kill each other, just don't let us see you."

"When an Israeli dies, five minutes of the half-hour news shows the mother of this man crying. But I'm sure that the mother of the Arab that is dead also cries."

Okram Sayhoun is a person, a bitter person, and an angry person. He is a person who is attuned to the situation and feelings of his people.

Wartburg homecoming will mark anniversary

Homecoming will commemorate Wartburg's 120th anniversary, according to this year's committee chairman, Steve Schuchmann.

Festivities will begin Thursday night Oct. 19, with the traditional bonfire, games and "Yell like Hell" contest between dorm floors.

FRIDAY NIGHT, Kastle Kapers will take a look at "Wartburg through the Years," at 7 and 9 p.m. in Neumann Auditorium. Cast members sing, dance and joke their way through the eras of the early German immigrants in Waverly, the World War I soldiers in cabarets and the swinging thirties and forties. Senior Lynn Kuester, who along with senior Randy Scumacher and junior Mark Lehmann heads the committee, says that the Homecoming Queen will again be crowned between shows.

An alumni coffee begins Saturday's activities. A possible forty unit parade organized by Steve Brady will make its way at 10 a.m. from the Bremer County Courthouse to Engelbrecht Library.

A recreated Renaissance Fair, with displays of art, music, drama and handicraft opens immediately after the parade. Both food and novelty items will be on sale by members of the community and Wartburg.

Prospective participants can reserve a booth with Chairman Bruce Loeschen.

CLASS REUNIONS, a campus barbecue, dorm open houses, a cross country meet, and a football game with William Penn College will fill the afternoon that the Oktoberfest begins. Culminating the events of the day is a steak fry and dance at the Waverly Country Club. Plans include a shuttle bus service to the Country Club, which Chairman Joe Thomas feels will boost attendance.

A special worship service for students and alumni, dorm open houses and an Artist series featuring The First Moog Quartet which combines electronics with more conventional instruments will conclude the weekend.

Number 2

Press service rates Trumpet first class

Associate Collegiate Press Service has awarded a First Class rating to the Wartburg Trumpet for the 1972 Winter and May Terms, according to critical evaluation reports received by present editor-in-chief Brenda Otto.

Although an All-American designation is the highest possible honor, the Trumpet, in receiving the First Class, got two marks of distinction in the areas of physical appearance and editorial leadership.

To become a recipient of the All-American award, a publication needs a greater number of accumulated points in various categories in addition to getting four of five possible marks of distinction in separate divisions.

Judge Gareth Hiebert, member of the St. Paul (Minn.) Dispatch staff, said of the paper: "You are a spokesman for Wartburg College and your makeup shows you really care."

Co-editors during the second term were Lyle Hallowell and Dick Lee; managing editor was Brenda Otto. Adviser was Mrs. Margaret Garland.

New staff complements Wartburg faculty

Eleven faculty and six administrative members join Wartburg this fall. New faculty members are as follows:

Joyce Birkeland, Instructor in Speech and Drama. Miss Birkeland completed her undergraduate work at Augsburg College in 1961 and received her M.A. from St. Cloud State in 1971.

Beverly Bomhoff, Instructor in Social Work. After graduating from Wartburg in 1966, Miss Bomhoff earned her M.A. at Smith College in 1968.

Merle Funk, Assistant Professor of Social Work and Chairman of the Department of Social Work. Funk completed his undergraduate education at Wartburg in 1956 and received a

M.S. from the University of Illinois in 1963.

Robert Gremmels, Assistant Professor of Journalism. Gremmels received his B.A. degree from Wartburg in 1952, his M.A. from Ohio State University in 1954 and a B.D. degree from Capital University in 1957.

Robert Krogh, Instructor in Business Administration. Krogh received his B.A. from the University of Northern Iowa in 1971 and his M.A. from the same institution in August, 1972.

Stephen Main, Assistant Professor of Biology. Main earned his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Valparaiso University in 1962 and 1965 respectively and has completed a doctoral program at Oregon State University.

Mabel Moy, Assistant Professor of Education and Psychology. Mrs. Moy earned her B.A. from Brooklyn College, her M.A. from Teachers College, Columbia University and expects to complete her doctoral program at Ohio University this fall.

William Shipman, Instructor in Economics. Presently a doctoral candidate at Pittsburgh, Shipman earned his B.S. degree at Youngstown State University in 1969 and his M.A. from the University of Pittsburgh in 1971.

William Theisen, Assistant Professor of Social Work. Theisen is a 1960 graduate of Loras College and received his M.S. degree from Washington University in 1968.

J. Maurice Travilliam, Library Director. Travilliam graduated from Memphis State in 1969 with a B.A. in history and completed a master's program in library science at George Peabody College in 1962. He has most recently served as acting director of the Iowa State Traveling Library.

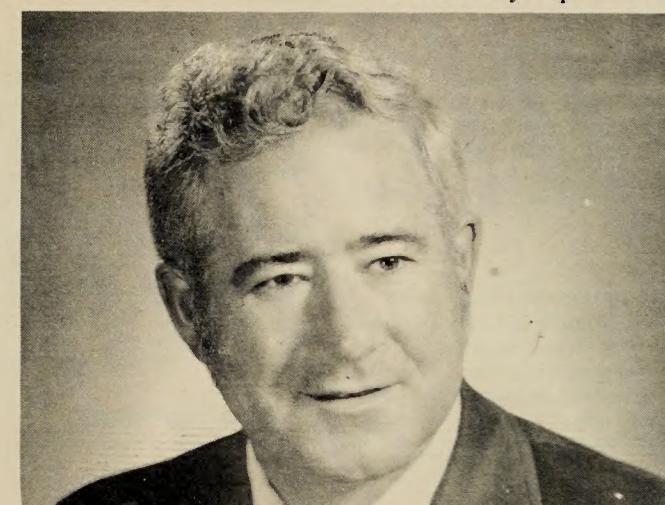

Delores Wunder, Instructor in Sociology. A 1966 graduate of Wartburg, she completed her master's degree program in sociology at the University of Northern Iowa in 1971. During the 1968-69 school year she taught at Tripoli, Iowa High School.

Annual Ecumenical Service of the Wartburg-Waverly community will be held Sunday, Sept. 24, at 10:45 a.m. in Neumann Auditorium. Wartburg President John W. Bachman will address the assembly with his message: "We are all wantoks in Christ."

Guest clergymen include Father William Menster and Dr. D.E. Streiffeler in addition to Wartburg Intern Chaplain John Clauson.

An ecumenical choir composed of members from Waverly area churches and a group of students will provide the music.

Congregations participating are St. Andrew's Episcopal, Trinity United Methodist, St. Paul's Lutheran, St. Mary's Catholic, Peace United Church of Christ, Redeemer Lutheran and Faith and Warren Methodist.

James Merrill of Lutheran Social Services will address a 10:30 convo on Wednesday. His topic will be "Schizophrenic Sex."

PART-TIME STUDENTS not purchasing activity tickets this term may buy Artist Series tickets at the regular prices.

Editorial forum

Talking to Student Body President Jerry Lawrence earlier this week, I learned that nominations for Senate seats and sign-ups for student-faculty committees were not going too well. Jerry did mention, however, that there seemed to be more interest aroused for the committees.

VERY INTERESTING--Being the curious inquirer that I am, I asked why. Jerry's response was that there is more substantive material discussed and acted upon by the committees than by the Senate. In other words, committees are "where the action is." To remedy this, I contend that Senate is where the action should be--action in the form of ideas, student feedback, worthwhile projects, decision-making affecting the entire campus and being a mouthpiece or instrument of the student body..

Analysis Orientation

"We've taken a leap of faith in trying something that has not been attempted before," said Orientation Intern Tom Guy.

He was referring to an assessment of the new freshman orientation program held here Sept. 9 and 10 prior to the start of classes. Guy emphasized that timing was an important consideration because, in his estimation, there is something of value to say and to share the first two days of a freshman's arrival.

REACTING TO REMARKS he has heard about freshmen being somewhat "different" this year, he theorizes that this noticeable difference is not so much inherent in the kids themselves but rather is attributable to their having gained an alternative way of perceiving themselves.

According to Guy, regard from upperclassmen has changed too for the most part as they have come to no longer look upon the freshmen as squires.

Guy began organizing the specific details of the program when he returned to campus Aug. 1. Planning had begun the previous fall, but many changes were made from the program's original conception. Hopes were to use the facilities of a nearby camp for a group living and fellowship experiment.

Further investigation, however, showed the camp to be reserved by some other organization, and a time shortage precluded the possibility of securing another similar site. Guy also mentioned that there would have been a cost involved which might have deterred some from participating in such a voluntary program. A decision was thus made to hold the event on campus.

RESIDENT ASSISTANTS and upperclass volunteers served as group leaders. Seminar groups were arranged to keep particular dorm floors together as much as possible with the rationale that the student could become familiar with his RA so as to seek him out for reference in later problem situations. Guy described a goal to "develop a chain of communication."

Eighteen faculty members participated in the program. Joan Henderson of the Student Affairs Office expressed the belief that more wished to become involved but did not know how to go about joining groups. Comments from faculty evaluations were generally positive. Guy said the element of respectability gained through the success of this year's program would win greater faculty interaction and approval next fall.

He expressed the view that orientation was an exercise in individual worth and identity. Its purpose was not to foster freshman identity or coherency as a class as it was to cultivate better personal relations.

"FORMERLY, INITIATION was a test of worthiness to be a college student," Guy remarked. "This year's group was considered worthy to begin with."

Both Mrs. Henderson and Guy stated they had heard reports from the freshmen that they ought to orient the upperclassmen. They voiced hopes that next year's budget may allow for camping expenditures if such an event were planned.

Guy said he would like to see a chairman and a committee to begin working on orientation plans by Winter Term. The object of this would be to make it a group project instead of an individual one to get more inputs.

Last year, from my personal observations as a senator, there was very little communication between the Senate body and the constituency it represented. I am not certain yet who merits the majority of the blame--senators or the people they represented.

Senate came to be regarded as a social activities planner rather than a major governing body. Some students made a mockery of the petty business conducted at the poorly attended meetings such as making engagements for bands, dividing up pinball profits and appropriating funds for redecorating Senate offices.

When an attempt was made last spring by a Senate faction to spend funds for the Welfare Answering Service which served northeast Iowa and to donate books to a state penitentiary, it was met with challenges. Motives in serving the interest of students on campus who were paying into the Senate's general fund were re-examined. However after much debate, priorities were never resolved. Senate discussion brought forth the concept of student apathy(whatever that is) to explain why Senate could not function as it wished.

By the time this issue appears, Senate elections will be over and no doubt there will be gaping vacancies at Wednesday night's first meeting. Who should bear the blame? Student body officers? Students? A Senate can only be as good as the people it represents--even if they are a silent and inactive majority. If students withhold their support and participation, they have no grounds to criticize or complain about Wartburg's governance system.

Student affairs handbook

This guidebook was compiled as a service to students by the Wartburg

Trumpet in cooperation with the Office of Student Affairs.

Dorm Policies

Revision of the past year's visitation policy has made the sign-in - sign-out policy obsolete. Although the Wartburg Calendar and Student Handbook for 1972-73 record the policy as effective, the Board of Regents abolished it last summer.

Policy guidelines allow for maximum visitation hours: 1 p.m. to 11 p.m. on weekdays except Friday; 1 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Fridays and Saturdays; and 1 p.m. to 11:45 p.m. on Sundays. Floors may restrict or abolish visitation hours according to the wishes of the students involved. Hours must be submitted to the Resident Director and Mr. James Moy, director of student affairs and posted at floor entrances.

Policy also provides that the host or hostess must take full responsibility for all guests. Visitors must be escorted through the halls and lobby and they may not use the bathrooms.

Each house enforces its own rules with offenders being handled by the dorm judicial system.

Non-visitation units may be established at students request. Closed door policy will be enforced.

STUDENT PRIVACY POLICY

Students have a right to privacy in their own rooms. Rooms cannot be searched unless the official has sufficient cause to believe a violation of policy has occurred or is occurring or there is an emergency. In non-emergency situations a student must be notified in writing three days prior to the search.

TELEPHONE POLICY

Switchboard hours are 6:30 to 12 p.m. on weekdays and Saturdays and 7 to 12 p.m. on Sundays.

If a call is placed after hours, a recorder takes any messages which are then transmitted to the person the following morning by the operator.

WOMENS DORM SECURITY

Womens dormitories are locked after 12 p.m. on weekdays (excluding Fridays) and Sundays and 2 a.m. on Saturdays and Fridays. If a woman wants to come in after these times she must enter at the Centennial door and be let in by a night hostess.

According to Moy this plan was adopted for reasons of security. "We lock the doors primarily to alleviate anxieties of some women of having male prowlers. But to allow the women to come in at any time we use the night hostess system."

RULES OF PERSONAL CONDUCT

Any student, member of the faculty, or staff or visitor who commits or attempts to commit any of the following acts of misconduct shall be subject to disciplinary procedures by the college as hereinafter provided:

- a) Intentional obstruction or disruption of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures, or other college or college-authorized function or event.
- b) Unauthorized occupation or use of or unauthorized entry into any college facility.
- c) Physical abuse or the threat of physical abuse against any person on the campus or at any college authorized function or event, or other conduct which threatens or endangers health or safety of any such person.
- d) Theft of or damage to property of the college or of a person on the campus.
- e) Intentional interference with the right of access to college facilities or with any other right of any person on campus.
- f) Setting a fire on campus without proper authority.
- g) Use or possession on the campus of firearms, ammunition, or other materials (except as expressly authorized by the college), or of bombs, explosives, or explosive or incendiary devises prohibited by law.
- h) Aid others in committing or incite others to commit any act set forth in a through g above.

SANCTIONS

Any person who, after appropriate hearing, is found to have violated any of the foregoing rules of personal conduct, shall be subject to the following sanction: Any student or member of the faculty or staff who is found to have violated any of the rules of personal conduct set forth in the above may be sanctioned up to and including suspension, expulsion or dismissal.

TEMPORARY BAR FROM CAMPUS

The President of the college is authorized to bar from campus any student or member of the faculty or staff who, in the President's judgement, has committed an act of misconduct in violation of the rules of personal conduct set forth in personal conduct rules and whose continued presence on the campus constitutes a clear and present danger to the orderly processes of the college.

a) The President's order barring such a person from the campus may be made without prior hearing. In cases where the President's order permits a person access to the campus for a limited purpose, the President may impose appropriate conditions in such right of access.

b) A member of the faculty or staff temporarily barred from the campus shall continue receiving his pay until the disposition of the charges against him by the college or the board.

c) An appropriate hearing on the charges shall, if at all practical, be held within ten days after the date of the President's order barring the person from the campus but in no event more than twenty days thereafter.

d) Despite a finding at the hearing that a person temporarily barred from the campus did not commit an act of misconduct set forth in the above and, thus, is not subject to sanction on that basis, such person may be sanctioned up to and including expulsion or dismissal upon a finding that he violated the President's order barring him from the campus.

RESIDENCE LIFE STAFF ORGANIZATION

Alcohol Policy

The sale of alcoholic beverages by any organization, person or group is strictly prohibited on the Wartburg campus. Alcoholic drinks, however, are permitted in student rooms of the residence halls but not in any other campus area including the public areas of halls, with possible exceptions defined later.

Transportation of alcoholic beverages to and from rooms must be in sealed containers. Kegs of beer in any size are not permitted in student rooms.

PUBLIC AREAS of a residence hall include any lounge, recreation room, bathroom, passageway and other hall facility that has not been designated as a student room.

A statement of responsibility governing the use, possession and sale of alcoholic beverages as it relates to minors in the State of Iowa is provided for and acknowledged by students.

Group parties involving any serving of alcoholic beverages are subject to the following rules:

1. Reservation for such an event shall be applied for and shall be approved by the Resident Director (if held in a residence hall area), the President of the hall and the Director of Student Affairs.

2. APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF each event must be submitted no less than one week and no more than two weeks in advance of the date proposed.

3. Application shall include the name(s) of a responsible sponsor, the date of the event, place, time it will begin and the time it will end. It shall include the name(s) of persons to be held responsible for cleanup, and this shall be persons other than the building custodians or any student janitorial employee of the college.

4. Such an event shall be held at specified locations on the campus and shall normally be confined to the recreation area of the residence halls, subject to the approval of the Director of Student Affairs.

Public intoxication is considered offensive and in violation of this policy. Individuals have the right to privacy in the halls and other areas of the campus without invasions of exceptional noise, shouting and laughing. Violation of this right shall not be tolerated.

NOTICE SHALL BE given to all students on how to deal with disturbances when their rights are being infringed upon. This shall include specific guidelines on how to work through the Resident Assistant, the Resident Director and the Student Affairs Office.

The Director of Student Affairs has the primary responsibility for enforcing the above policies. Executive sequences of authority state that the Resident Director is responsible for the enforcement of policy in the hall. Resident assistants will help in reporting violators to him. The Resident Director follows up all reports and files appropriate charges against all violators according to procedures outlined in the Campus Judicial System.

The Director of Student Affairs may be called upon for assistance by the Residence Hall staff. In addition, the campus security officer may be summoned by the Director of Student Affairs if he feels the need.

In the course of performing his regular duties the security officer may observe infractions of the rules. He will be responsible for handling the violators, reporting the incident to the Director of Student Affairs and charging the person(s) with the violation.

All charges of a disciplinary nature concerning all violators are subject to the procedure outlined in the Campus Judicial System.

Parking Regulations

Steven Garrett, campus security officer, says failure to report vehicles and improper parking are the main reasons for issuing tickets. Deadline for registering cars was midnight, Sept. 15.

Students receiving tickets must report to the Security Office to pay a fine. The fines vary for the offense, but generally run $2 for parking in a yellow zone, a service or fire lane; $1, $2, or $3 for improper parking, depending on the seriousness of the offense; and $1 for failure to register. Penalties for moving violations are decided by a hearing board.

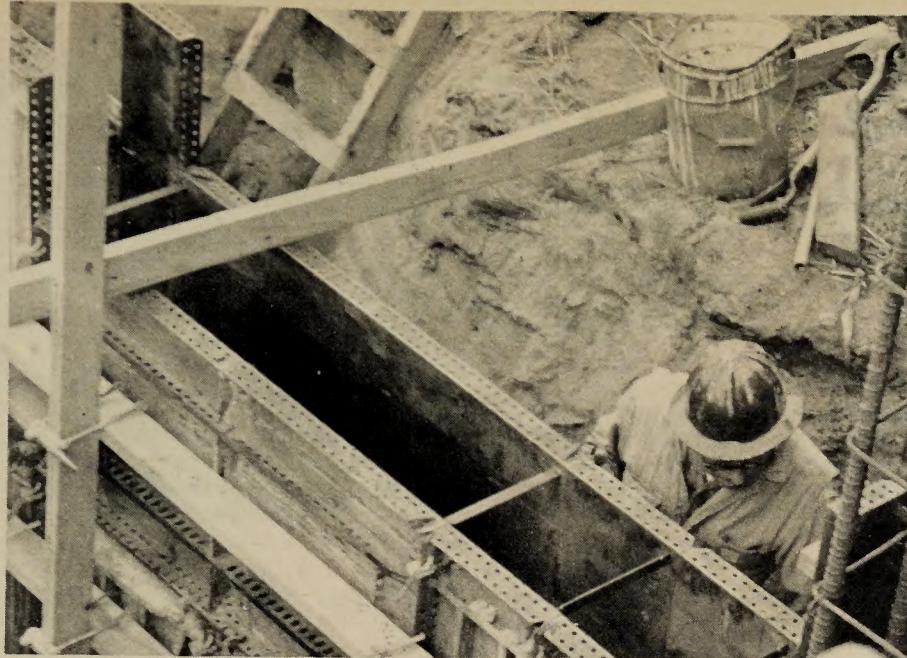

Persons who wish to contest a ticket may request a hearing. This must be done within two weeks of the issue date of the ticket.

Parking stickers were issued to students at the time of car registration. These are to be displayed on the right hand side of the back windshield.

Parking lots are scattered around the campus. Priority in parking assignments was given to students that pre-registered their vehicles. Seniors were generally assigned to Lot G, juniors to Lot B, sophomores to Lot D and freshmen to Lot E. Commuters were assigned Lot A. Those who did not pre-register during the summer were given lot assignments on a first-come, first served basis.

A "premium parking space" on Lot F, usually reserved for faculty members, is available for one more student, said Garrett. Located behind Old Main, Lot F is the most centrally located parking area on campus. This would be an ideal parking spot for students living in Clinton, Grossman, Vollmer, Centennial and Hebron dormitories.

Cost for the premium parking lot space is $25 per academic year. Parking permits for Lots B, D, E, and G are $16 per year. For Lots A and M the cost is $8.

Library guide

Englebrecht Library, recently enlarged and remodelled, provides students and faculty with over 100,000 volumes and subscribers to more than 900 periodicals. Also available are collections of slides, cassettes, tapes, filmstrips and records.

Until further notice, library hours will be as follows, except on holidays: Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m.; Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.; Saturday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sunday, 1 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

THE PERIODICAL RESOURCES of the library are supplemented by participation in NEIAL, a cooperative group of six college libraries which makes over 6400 serial titles available to Wartburg students at no charge.

Borrowing any materials from the library requires use of the student I.D. card. Students are fully responsible for all materials charged out under their name.

A student may check out books on a term loan basis which means the student has an exclusive right to use the book (unless needed in the library) for two weeks. After that period the book may be recalled for the use of another student who has requested it. Upon notification, the student must return the book to the library within 24 hours.

Reserve books, curriculum materials, pamphlets and audio-visual materials are circulated for one to three days. Art prints may be checked out for term. Bound periodical volumes are not circulated and loose issues are circulated for overnight only.

PHOTOCOPIES OF ARTICLES may be made with the use of the coin-operated copier near the circulation desk. Some newspapers and magazines are available on microfilm only. Photocopies of microfilms will be made on request to the reference librarian.

Term loan books may not be renewed, but all term loans are due at the library one week before the end of the term.

Fines will be charged for overdue materials each day including holidays at the regular rates, unless they are for reserve books, in which case the reserve book fine is in effect. Any fines due must be paid before renewal.

Grading policy revision

GRADE SYSTEM

The following grades will be assigned in courses offered at Wartburg:

- C - Satisfactory performance
- D - Marginal performance
- PO - Passing (defined as A, B, C, or D) under Pass-No credit option
- N - No credit
- W - Withdrawn
- I - Incomplete

For purposes of computing the cumulative average, the A will have a value of four grade points, B of three, C of two and D of one. The cumulative average is determined by dividing the total number of grade points by the total number of courses in which an A, B, C or D grade was assigned. In the case of repeated courses, however, only the second (or last) grade will be used.

Grades of P and PO earn academic credit but are not used in computing the cumulative average. Credit can not be earned with the grades W and N and is not used in computing the cumulative average.

WHEN A STUDENT is unable to complete the work of a course in a term because of circumstances beyond his control, the grade I (Incomplete) will be assigned. This grade may be removed by completing the course before the end of the next four-month term (Fall or Winter Term). If it is not removed during this term, it will remain as an I on the permanent record of the student.

REGISTRATION

Students will prepare their class schedules prior to the beginning of each term in consultation with their academic advisors. Formal registration must be completed on the date(s) specified in the college calendar. With the approval of their academic advisers, students may make changes in their schedules in the seven calendar days of the Fall or Winter Terms following the registration day.

WITHDRAWALS ARE MADE in the office of the Registrar. No notation will appear on a students' permanent record for a course he withdraws from during the first week of school.

A student may withdraw from a course from the second through the thirteenth week of a term with a grade W, provided he submits to the office of the Registrar no later than the end of the thirteenth week a withdrawal card signed by his adviser and the instructor of the course.

After the end of the thirteenth week, a student may not withdraw from a course. If, for reasons of ill health or emergency, a student is compelled to terminate his study after the end of the thirteenth week, he will receive the grade I.

If a student decides to withdraw from the college during a term, he must secure the signature of his adviser, the Director of Student Affairs and the Controller to his statement of withdrawal. Upon completion of this process, he will receive a grade of W in each of his courses if the withdrawal occurs before the end of the thirteenth week.

Students who wish to register at Wartburg after withdrawing during a term, after dismissal for academic reasons or after an absence of one or more terms (not including Summer Terms) must clear eligibility with the Admissions Office.

ACADEMIC REPORTS

At the end of the Fall and May Terms, the Registrar will issue a report of the grades received in all courses, the term cumulative average and the total cumulative average to students, advisers and other administrative offices. Grades are not released to anyone outside the institution without the written consent of the student as set by the Records Policy Statement.

Freshman students doing work of less than C quality will receive a grade report containing a record of less than satisfactory work at the end of the fourth week of the Fall Term. All students doing work of less than C quality will receive a similar report at the end of the eighth week of each term.

SCHOLASTIC RECORDS of students are kept on file in the office of the Registrar. The permanent record is the property of the college and is never released for any purpose. Transcripts of the permanent records are issued upon request of the student.

ACADEMIC HONORS

At the end of the Fall Term and Winter-May Term, a student will be placed on the Dean's Honor List if he: achieves a term grade point average of 3.250 or above; has not elected any Pass-No Credit options during the term; and earns credit in at least four courses during the Fall Term or five courses during the Winter-May Term.

Graduation honors will be conferred upon students who have earned credit in at least eighteen courses at Wartburg and who have achieved a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.400 in all courses completed at Wartburg.

Grade-point averages of 3.400 to 3.599 merits graduation cum laude; 3.600 to 3.799 merits graduation magna cum laude; and 3.800 and above merits graduation summa cum laude. (This change in grade-point average required for graduation honors will be effective beginning with the Class of 1976).

GRADE REQUIREMENTS

A regular student must achieve a minimum-quality average of 2.000 in all courses submitted for graduation in order to qualify for graduation from Wartburg. A student who is making normal progress toward the attainment of this goal will be regarded as in good standing; a student who is not making normal progress toward this goal will be placed on academic probation or dismissed.

ACADEMIC PROBATION is a status in which the college, through the Dean of the Faculty, issues a formal warning to the student to the effect that the quality of his total achievement is not satisfactory and must be improved in order to qualify for graduation. It is a warning, also, that failure to regain good standing may result in dismissal from the college.

The minimum-quality requirement for good standing at the end of a particular term will be based upon the total cumulative average earned by that time.

A student will be expected to achieve a minimum-quality average according to the following scale: 1.500 at the end of the first term of college work, 1.800 at the end of the fourth term, 1.900 at the end of the fifth term and 2.000 at the end of the sixth term of college work.

IF HE FAILS to achieve according to this scale, he will be placed on academic probation or dismissed. He may be placed on academic probation also if he fails to achieve a grade of C or better in at least one-half of the courses attempted in a given term.

A student who is dismissed from college for unsatisfactory academic achievement may appeal to the Academic Problems Committee for a review of the decision. If the decision is upheld by the Academic Problems Committee, the student may apply for readmission after one term.

Records concerning academic probation and dismissal are internal records of the college. No entry regarding such status will be placed on a student's permanent record.

TRANSFER CREDIT

Transfer credit may be accepted for credit earned at other accredited institutions. Credit only is transferred; grade points are not transferred. However, transfer credit of D quality may be applied toward the quantitative graduation requirement only to the extent that the student has compensating transfer credit of A or B quality.

Health Program

Rohlf Memorial Clinic provides health services to Wartburg students living on campus or in Waverly in cooperation with the campus nurse, Miss Bertha Mead.

Health fees are included in enrollment costs. Prior to becoming eligible, a student must have a physical exam at his own expense prior to Nov. 29. Records are kept at the Clinic.

Coverage is also available to students living at home or to commuters except for house calls outside the city limits and care due to auto and farm accidents occurring outside the city limits.

The health plan covers complete medical, surgical and diagnostic services including all necessary medicine for any illness or accident which the Clinic can furnish.

SPECIAL EXAMS including lab, x-ray, fluoroscopy and electrocardiography are provided when the procedure is necessary for proper understanding and treatment of the case.

Coverage includes examination and treatment at the Clinic when deemed necessary by the nurse, also house calls, hospital-furnished medication and supplies are not covered. Costs incurred for dental work, obstetrical care, prescription glasses, surgery and birth control devices must be paid by the student.

Diseases or injuries occurring while the student is away from town as well as pre-existing conditions are not covered.

Wartburg offers infirmary and dispensary services free of charge for ordinary illnesses. Miss Mead will refill most prescriptions except in cases of allergy or dermatology medication, for example.

The health plan does not provide for free hospitalization, charges made for drugs, lab, fees, etc. at the hospital or free entrance exams to other schools.

Miss Mead often makes referrals when health problems cannot be handled at the Clinic. These may be to specialists in Waterloo or to mental health facilities in the area.

NURSE'S HOURS are 7 to 11 a.m. and 4 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday in Neumann House. Students should call ext. 229 weekdays and 352-4052 in case of emergency after hours.

Ill students should report to the nurse's office during office hours. If confined to bed, the student should notify the resident assistant.

If the nurse is unavailable, a student should contact the Student Affairs Office. To qualify for an excused absence, he must report the illness the same day or prior to the missed class.

Team anticipates Hastings

After opening with an impressive 46-0 victory over Eureka last Saturday, Coach Lee Bondhus and his squad will be looking to keep the string alive tomorrow against Hastings, Nebraska.

Wendell Maupin, head coach at Hastings, has twenty-three letterman returning from last year's second place squad. Hastings, a member of the tough Nebraska Association of Inter-Collegiate Athletics Conference, has an enrollment of 780 students.

Maupin's present problem is to find a replacement for his all-conference quarterback Gary Bender who was lost through graduation.

BONDHUS WAS very satisfied with the performance of his squad Saturday, but he readily admits that they will play much tougher teams throughout this season.

IIAC teams break even

(News Bureau)

The Iowa Conference will have its final tune-up against non-conference opponents tomorrow before heading into its own football campaign Sept. 30. The eight IIAC teams broke even last week-end, winning four and losing four, maintaining a three-game winning margin, 7-4, in pre-league competition.

Four teams, including two who have played two games, are still unbeaten: William Penn 2-0, Upper Iowa 2-0, Buena Vista 1-0, and Wartburg 1-0. Penn, with a 63-0 win over Baker University (Kan.), has scored 99 points while giving up none in two games. Other victors last weekend were UIC, 21-7 over Cornell, Wartburg, 46-0 over Eureka (Ill.), and Buena Vista, 43-0 over Westmar.

Games this week will see Simpson at Iowa Wesleyan, Luther at Augustana (Ill.), Lakeland (Wis.) at Central, Hastings (Neb.) at Wartburg, Buena Vista at Northwestern, Upper Iowa at Bethel (Minn.), William Penn at Pillsbury (Minn.) and Dubuque at Eureka (Ill.).

Bondhus' scouting report shows that Hastings was a very sound team last Saturday's play and could compete in the Iowa Conference with recognition.

Bondhus has only junior Joe Rinaldi on the injury list, making him a doubtful performer for tomorrow's game. If he is unable to play, it will either be senior Tom Jenkins or senior Jim Hayden at cornerback.

Wartburg heads into tomorrow's game with one new record already tucked away for the still-young season. The Knights rushed for 369 yards to better the old school mark of 356 set against Buena Vista in 1968, Wartburg's last championship year.

"I was pleased with our execution for the first game," Bondhus said. "Our interior line play, which was a pre-season concern, stood up very well. We did, however, make too many mistakes, and our passing game wasn't as sharp as we had hoped it would be."

THE KNIGHTS drew three penalties inside Eureka's five-yard line in the first quarter, and Bondhus said that type of mistake would be costly in a closer game. They allowed the Red Devils just 85 yards in total offense, but Bondhus said a number of individuals in the defensive unit "...got a little sloppy in their techniques as the game went on."

On the plus side, Bondhus said he felt the Knights' tackling had improved over recent scrimmages, and "...we did a good job with punt returns which gave our offense good field position." He also cited his squad's "enthusiasm" and patted his reserves on the back for a "...good effort."

He had his second and third units play the entire fourth quarter, and they scored twice, once after a bad snap from center on a punting situation which put Eureka on its own seven and later on a 10-play, 64-yard drive. On still another occasion, the reserves drove 48 yards before a fumble cut short hopes of another score.

Intramural football to get under way

Intramural Football season is getting under way with sixteen permanent areas including Grossmann Hall Ground and I, Grossmann II, Grossmann III, Clinton Hall North Ground and I, Clinton II N, Clinton III N, Clinton Hall South Ground, Clinton I S, Clinton II S, Clinton III S, Waverly Manors - Engelbrecht and Wiederanders, Wartburg Hall, Off Campus and Faculty.

Intramurals are for everyone not involved in or having lettered in interscholastic competition of that sport. Players are currently signing up in their areas for Flag Football. Deadline for turning in team rosters to Lee Mayer, student intramural director, or Ernest Oppermann, intramural sponsor, was 4 p.m. yesterday.

A team is to be composed of at least 12 men with a maximum set at 16. Eightman football will be played. Every man in attendance must play half of the time with each individual responsible for his own well being.

Anyone interested in officiating intramural flag football should contact Lee Mayer, room 144, Clinton Hall. A slight promotion is paid per game.

Harriers to open season with invitational

(News Bureau)

Wartburg's cross country team will make its 1972 debut at the Luther Invitational in Decorah tomorrow. All 14 squad members will compete in two scheduled races. Sixteen teams are entered.

The Knights will then return home for a dual with Winona State Tuesday, Sept. 26, before entering the Les Duke Invitational at Grinnell Sept. 30. The Winona State dual will begin at 4 p.m. on the Waverly Country Club course. The first three meets will all be four miles.

COACH JOHN KURTT views those meets as ". . . experimental. We want to see what our runners can do in a competitive situation."

Kurtt has only three returning lettermen which means the Knights are going to be inexperienced. On the plus side, the 14-member roster represents "the largest group we've ever had out."

Senior Marty Rathje will head Wartburg's entry at Decorah. He is one of the three lettermen and last year placed fourth in the Iowa Conference meet at Dubuque. Also back are senior John Wuertz and junior Steve Hotz.

THE REMAINDER of Kurtt's line-up will be of unknown quality until after the first few meets. Expected to be among the top seven harriers early in the season are freshmen Steve Oelschlaeger and Dave Neve and Junior Dennis Strempe.

Joe Garrigio of The Today Show once described pain as "Being a javelin catcher for a track team." Crosscountry involves mental and physical pressures beyond pain.

Every sport has pressures, but in cross country it is a constant struggle of a runner versus himself. Why would anyone subject themselves to such a situation?

Cross country teams are very closely knit units who respect one another's abilities. Respect develops as each runner knows that every hill or slope is aggravating mental and physical anguish.

"I hadn't coached cross country before coming here. The kids I have are good athletes. There are kids on my team who never ran cross country before coming to Wartburg. It's a great competitive sport," explained Coach John Kurtt.

"In high school I went out to get in shape for basketball and I found out I was good at it. It is hard to say what I like about cross country. It's fun to just go out and run by yourself and forget about studies and pressures on my mind," senior Marty Rathje noted.

"AS A SENIOR in high school I was halfway decent. It's fun to be able to know you can beat somebody and to be able to take the amount of mental pressure that goes with it," added junior Steve Hotz.

Junior Dennis Strempe said, "This is my first year running. You can get satisfaction out of your performance and also help the team. There is a unity in this sport. Everyone pulls for each other because we know how tough it is."

"I used to prepare for track running cross country. I like all the guys on the team. I like to win and also get some sense of well being," commented freshman Martin Forster.

Anyone who knows about cross country says it is a grueling and rugged sport. These runners are of a rare breed who do not know the meaning of pain.

Poets to meet

The Midwest Federation of Chaparral Poets will hold its fall meeting here Saturday, Sept. 23. Twenty-five to thirty poets, all from Iowa, are expected to attend, according to Mrs. Margaret Garland of Wartburg's English Department.

Poetry and a poetry clinic will highlight the day's activities. Mrs. Garland will serve as clinic judge and will also address the group.

"Welcome to Waverly" is sponsored by the Wartburg Alumni annually and invites sophomores to assist in the introduction of alumni and Waverly Ambassadors.

The program began with several vocal selections sung by junior Kathy Rask.
